ICSC TABLE TENNIS RULES

last amended 14/02/2020 by ICSC

Table Tennis will be conducted according to the rules of Table Tennis Australia, with specific ICSC exceptions listed below.

EVENT FORMAT

Table Tennis is contested as a mixed gender round robin tournament. The previous competition's top four placed teams will be seeded accordingly, while the remaining eight teams will be seeded according to the current year's Random Draw. Where the previous results are not available, the Random Draw will be used to determine all seeds. Finals shall consist of two Semi-finals and a Grand Final, with a 3rd/4th play-off.

One male and one female player will compete in Singles rubbers; two male players will contest a Doubles rubber; two female players will contest a Doubles rubber; and one male and one female will compete in a Mixed Doubles rubber.

A player may play in only one rubber i.e. Singles or Doubles, in each contest.

The order of rubbers shall be: male and female Singles, followed by male and female Doubles, with mixed Doubles completing the contest. The winning College will be the one that has won the greatest number of rubbers.

TEAM SIZE & ELIGIBILITY

Each college team shall comprise eight players (four male and four female).

Per ICSC rules, each college is permitted to play two non-resident students (20%) in any given match.

MATCH DURATION

Preliminary and Finals matches will consist of five rubbers (two Singles and three Doubles) – each rubber consisting of the best of five 11 point sets (with a two point advantage). Ninety minutes and two courts will be allocated for Preliminary matches, while two hours and two courts will be allocated for Finals.

The winning College will be the one that has won the greatest number of rubbers. If a winner has not been determined after ninety minutes of play a countback will occur in the order of games won then points won.

FORFEITS

If a team does not have their designated male and female Singles players ready to commence the game within 10 minutes of the scheduled starting time, a forfeit shall be declared.

GAME OFFICIALS

Matches shall be self-umpired by competing players, or a resting player may umpire at the consent of both competing players.

UNIFORM AND EQUIPMENT

Competitors should wear their College sport uniform. Only non-marking shoes should be worn on courts.

Balls will be provided by the Host College and should be collected prior to each match. Competing Colleges may keep the balls allocated for their matches for future practice. Colleges and/or Individuals should provide their own table tennis bats.

ICSC POLICIES

All ICSC Policies and Procedures must be adhered to by all participants. Designated Team Captains and College Sports Representatives are also expected to ensure their College participants are aware of all relevant policies and procedures and act accordingly. For more information, consult the ICSC Handbook.
